

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 26, 1940

My dear Mr. Mathews:

I regret to learn through your letter of March twenty-fifth that you feel it necessary to leave the public service in order to return to private pursuits. Your service with the government has not only been a long one but one of great usefulness and I want you to know how deeply I appreciate everything you have done to make the Securities and Exchange Commission an instrument of constructive helpfulness.

In accordance with your expressed wish I accept your resignation, effective at the close of business on April fifteenth next, and wish you in your new work the fullest measure of happiness and success.

Very sincerely yours,

Honorable George C. Mathews,
Commissioner,
Securities and Exchange Commission,
Washington, D. C.
