October 23, 1916

Honorable James D. Maher,
Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States
Washington D. C.

My dear Mr. Maher:--

I intended to inquire of you before _____ Washington whether or not the rules permitted us to leave _____ court our oral argument which we had with us there in print. Of course, on account of the numerous questions of the members of the court we could adhere only in part to the points which we had prepared for oral argument. I was obliged to leave Washington the evening the arguments closed and did not have a chance to take that matter up with you. Several briefs of counsel, some on one side and some on the other, came in so late that we had no chance to examine them. Should the rules not permit the leaving in printed form of the oral argument I would, of course, not wish to have any request made for that purpose.

With kindest personal regards I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Timothy S. Hogan
