

February 4, 1938.

Mr. Justice Black,
The Supreme Court.

My dear Mr. Justice Black:

I have just read with great interest your dissenting opinion in the case of Connecticut General Life Insurance Company vs. Johnson. It is a perfectly swell job. An awful lot of people will agree with you. I congratulate you on your courageous stand.

Yours faithfully,

William O. Douglas,
Chairman.