

The White House,
Washington

April 13, 1934

MAC:

Tell him I should like to see him, but have a definite rule that I cannot see anybody on pending legislation while the bills are in committee, because that is solely a congressional matter. But after bills come out of committee and are passed one house, I would be very glad to see him.

F.D.R.