Thursday
Oct. /8th
1987.

The Hon. Judge Morris Lasker
U. S. District, South District,
New York, N. Y.

Your Honor -

I have known Ivan Boesky for over twenty-five years. I have known him first as a friend, then as a husband and a father and he is almost like part of my own family.

In all those years I have only witnessed him as a man of great kindness, a man who gives of himself, and a man that I am proud to have known as a friend.

I promise you your Honor, no matter what his punishment, it can never equal the punishment he has inflicted on himself, and will endure for as long as he lives.

I can also promise you, knowing Ivan as I do, he will one day re-establish his credentials and good standing in the community.

Most respectfully,
