In all emergencies, call Building Security or FPS* and tell them:

- The type of emergency and whether "911" already has been called (if needed),
- The location where a response is needed,
- What you feel is needed to help with the emergency, and
- What actions you have taken already.

* Federal Protection Service (FPS) is a division of the Department of Homeland Security and provides security and law enforcement support to all federal offices nationwide.

How To Respond To A Bomb Threat

Remember:

- Be calm and courteous.
- If possible, WITHOUT letting the caller know, enlist the aid of fellow employees to notify the security guards immediately.

Ask the caller questions, such as:

- 1) When is the bomb going to explode? _____
- 2) Where is the bomb right now? _____
- 3) What does the bomb look like? _____
- 4) What will cause the bomb to explode? _____
- 5) Did you (the caller) place the bomb? _____
- 6) What is your name? _____
- 7) What is your address? _____

Write down the exact wording of the threat:

Take down pertinent data about bomb threat caller:

Male or Female: _____

Race (if discernible): _____

Did they have an accent? Describe: _____

Age (approximate): _____

Length of call: _____

Time of call (a.m./p.m.): _____

Telephone number at which call was received: _____

Caller's voice description:

nasal	raspy	ragged	clearing throat	cracked voice
stutter	deep	lisp	deep breathing	disguised

If the voice is familiar, what did it sound like? _____

Background Noises:

street noises	house noises	animal noises	booth
Voices	motor	clear	airplanes
PA system	office equipment	static	factory machinery
music	railroads	local	long distance

Threat Language:

well spoken	irrational	taped
foul	incoherent	message read by threat maker

Give your name, telephone and room number to the security guards.
