

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Chapter I. Background, Scope, and Summary:
A. Introduction.....	1
B. Investment company growth.....	2
C. Background of the report.....	2
1. The Wharton Report.....	2
2. The Special Study.....	3
3. Commission review.....	4
D. Scope of the report.....	5
E. Outline of the report.....	6
F. Summary of the report.....	7
1. Chapter 11—The Investment Company Industry.....	7
(a) The coverage of the Act.....	7
(b) Types of investment companies.....	7
(i) Face-amount certificate companies.....	7
(ii) Unit investment trusts.....	7
(iii) The management companies.....	8
(c) Mutual fund structure.....	8
(d) Distribution of mutual fund shares.....	9
(e) The pattern of Federal regulation.....	9
2. Chapter 111—The Management Function and Its Cost.....	10
(a) Contracting out the management function.....	10
(b) The cost of management.....	10
(c) Existing restraints on management compensation.....	12
(d) The Commission's recommendations.....	13
(e) Sales of management organizations.....	14
3. Chapter IV—Portfolio Transactions.....	14
(a) The securities markets.....	14
(b) Allocation of mutual fund brokerage.....	15
(c) Impact of mutual fund reciprocal and give-up practices.....	16
(d) Proposed action.....	17
(e) Broker-affiliated investment companies.....	18
(f) Capital gains distributions.....	18
(g) Insider transactions involving investment company portfolio securities.....	19
4. Chapter V—Distribution and Its Cost.....	19
(a) Mutual fund growth and sales of shares.....	19
(b) Sales load levels.....	19
(c) Sales loads compared to sales charges for other securities.....	20
(d) Sales load on investment of dividend income.....	20
(e) The adequacy of existing statutory controls.....	20
(f) Recommendations and conclusions.....	21
(g) Contractual plans.....	21
(h) Impact of the front-end load.....	22
(i) The front-end load on face-amount certificates.....	22
5. Chapter VI—Mutual Fund Size and Investment Performance.....	23
(a) Introduction.....	23
(b) Management problems of small and large funds.....	23
(c) Investment performance.....	24
(d) Conclusions.....	24

Chapter I. Background, Scope, and Summary—Continued
F. Summary of the report—Continued
6. Chapter VII—Investment Company Growth and Market Impact	Page 24
(a) The growing importance of institutional investors	24
(b) Mutual funds as institutional investors	25
(c) Mutual fund impact on stock market movements	25
(d) Mutual fund impact on markets for particular securities	25
(e) Regulatory implications of institutional investor growth	26
(f) Mutual funds and increased trading activity	26
7. Chapter VIII—Investment Company Relationships With Portfolio Companies	27
(a) Relationships with portfolio companies other than investment companies	27
(b) Mutual fund holding companies	28
(i) Introduction	28
(ii) Control of portfolio companies	28
(iii) The utility of the fund holding company to investors	28
(iv) Conclusions and recommendations	29
8. Chapter IX—The Administration and Enforcement of the Act	29
(a) The Act's coverage	29
(i) Eliminating exception for certain companies issuing redeemable securities	29
(ii) Other coverage recommendations	29
(b) Management shareholder relationships	30
(i) Strengthening the independence of directors	30
(ii) Other recommendations as to management-shareholder relationships	30
(c) Administrative and other proceedings	31
(i) Administrative proceedings	31
(ii) Breach of fiduciary duty	31
(d) Formal changes in the act	32
(e) The Investment Advisers Act	32
Chapter 11. The Investment Company Industry:
A. What is an investment company?	33
1. The investment company concept	33
2. Statutory exclusions	34
3. Investment companies created by insurance companies and banks	35
4. Administrative exemptive powers	37
B. Types of investment companies	37
1. Face-amount certificate companies	37
2. Unit investment trusts	38
3. Management companies	39
C. Types of management investment companies	39
1. Introduction	39
2. Diversified versus non-diversified	39
3. Open-ends and closed-ends	41
D. Mutual fund structure	45
1. Introduction	45
2. Selecting and supervising investments	45
3. Fund complexes	47
4. The internally managed funds	49
5. The prevalence of external management	49
6. Portfolio transactions	50
7. Selling new shares	51
8. The load funds	52
9. How load fund shares are sold	54
10. Selling load fund shares on the installment plan: Contractual plans and voluntary plans	57
11. The no-load funds	58

Chapter 11. The Investment Company Industry—Continued	Pam
E. The pattern of Federal regulation-----	59
1. The Securities Act-----	60
2. The Exchange Act-----	61
(a) Commission regulation-----	61
(b) Cooperative regulation-----	62
(c) The 1964 amendments-----	63
3. The Investment Advisers Act of 1940-----	63
4. The Investment Company Act-----	63
(a) The Investment Trust Study-----	64
(b) Fundamental policies of the Act-----	65
(c) Substantive provisions-----	66
(i) Registration-----	66
(ii) Protecting investment company assets-----	66
(iii) Capital structures-----	67
(iv) Checks on management domination of investment companies—Requirements with respect to the composition of boards of directors-----	67
(v) Transactions with affiliated persons: The general rules-----	68
(vi) Transactions with affiliated persons: specialized treatment of advisory contracts, underwriting agreements, and brokerage relationships-----	69
(d) Appraisal of the Act-----	71
F. Sales loads, advisory fees, and brokerage commissions-----	72
1. The findings of the Wharton Report and the Special Study-----	72
2. Public policy implications of the Wharton and Special Study Reports-----	75
Appendix. Special tax treatment of diversified investment companies-----	79
Chapter III. The Management Function and Its Cost:
A. The management function-----	84
1. Portfolio management-----	84
(a) Analyses of the economy and of the securities markets-----	84
(b) Analyses of particular industries-----	84
(c) Selecting specific securities-----	85
2. Nonadvisory services-----	86
3. Advisory organizations-----	87
B. Contractual arrangements-----	88
1. Advisory contracts-----	88
2. Services paid for by the advisory fee-----	90
3. Administrative fees-----	92
C. The cost of management-----	94
1. The economies of size-----	94
2. 1960 advisory fees—The findings of the Wharton Report--	96
3. Advisory fee rates since 1960-----	97
(a) 1965 advisory fee rates-----	97
(b) Changes in advisory contracts since 1960-----	100
4. Evaluating the fairness of advisory fees—The need for comparative standards--	102
D. Management costs—Internally managed versus externally managed investment companies-----	102
1. The cost of internal management-----	102
2. The MIT-MIGS complex-----	104
3. The Broad Street complex-----	106
4. Economies of size and mutual fund complexes-----	108
5. Use of brokerage commissions to reduce management costs-----	108
6. Changes in management costs—Internally versus externally managed funds-----	110
E. Mutual fund advisory fees versus fees charged other types of investment advisory clients-----	114
1. Bank fees for pension and profit-sharing plans-----	114
2. Advisory fee rates charged mutual funds operated for banks-----	118
3. Advisory fee rates charged other nonfund clients-----	119

	Page
Chapter III. The Management Function and Its Cost—Continued
F. Profit margins of external advisory organizations.....	121
1. Total operations.....	121
2. Advisory and distribution operations performed for mutual funds.....	122
3. The effect of reductions in advisory fee schedules.....	125
G. Existing restraints on management compensation.....	125
1. Advisory fees and competition.....	126
2. Advisory fees and the limitations of disclosure.....	127
3. Shareholder voting rights.....	128
4. The role of the unaffiliated directors.....	130
5. The position of the investment adviser.....	132
6. The advisory fee in the courts.....	132
(a) Background.....	132
(b) The fully litigated cases.....	133
(c) The settlements.....	138
(d) Summary.....	141
7. The Commission's recommendations.....	143
(a) A statutory standard of reasonableness.....	143
(b) The possible alternatives.....	147
H. Sales of management organizations.....	149
1. The need for shareholder protections.....	149
2. The adequacy of existing shareholder protections.....	150
3. The Commission's recommendation.....	152
Chapter IV. Portfolio Transactions:
A. Introduction.....	155
B. The securities markets.....	156
1. National securities exchanges.....	156
(a) The organization of an exchange.....	156
(b) Minimum commission rate schedules.....	156
(c) The New York Stock Exchange.....	157
(d) The American Stock Exchange.....	157
(e) The regional exchanges.....	157
2. The over-the-counter markets in unlisted securities.....	158
3. The third market.....	159
4. The fourth market.....	161
5. Underwritten offerings.....	161
6. Private placements.....	162
C. Factors affecting allocation of mutual fund brokerage commissions.....	162
1. The creation of disposable brokerage.....	162
2. The use of disposable brokerage commissions.....	163
(a) Supplementary investment advice.....	163
(b) Other services.....	164
(c) Sales of fund shares.....	164
3. Allocation techniques.....	167
(a) Reciprocity.....	167
(b) The give-up.....	169
(i) Introduction.....	169
(ii) On the New York Stock Exchange.....	170
(ii) On the regional exchanges.....	170
4. Impact of mutual fund reciprocal and give-up practices.....	172
(a) Use of brokerage commissions to benefit the funds.....	172
(i) Reducing advisory fees.....	172
(ii) Allocation of brokerage commissions between sales and services.....	173
(b) Impact on portfolio management.....	174
(c) Improper executions.....	175
(i) Transactions in listed securities—Choice of market.....	175
(ii) Transactions on national securities exchanges—Choice of executing brokers.....	177
(iii) Transactions in over-the-counter securities.....	178
(d) Impact on mutual fund sales practices.....	179

TABLE OF CONTENTS

XV

Chapter IV. Portfolio Transactions — Continued
C. Factors affecting allocation — Continued
4. Impact of mutual fund — Continued
(e) The competitive effects of reciprocal and give-up practices	Page 180
(i) Competition between small and large funds	180
(ii) Competition between member and non-member dealers	180
(iii) Competition among markets for listed securities	182
5. Existing controls over mutual fund reciprocal and give-up practices	182
(a) State regulation	182
(b) The NASD	183
(c) The national securities exchanges	184
(d) The Investment Company Institute	184
(e) Federal regulation — The need for action	184
(f) Customer-directed give-ups	185
(g) Reciprocity and exchange commission rate schedules	186
(h) Other action	187
D. Broker-affiliated investment companies	188
E. Capital gains distributions	190
1. Investment company practices	190
2. Effect on selling practices and portfolio management	191
3. The adequacy of existing regulation	193
F. Insider transactions involving investment company portfolio securities	195
1. The problem of insider trading	195
2. Industry codes and guidelines	196
(a) Types	196
(b) Implementation	198
3. Conclusions and recommendations	199
Chapter V. Distribution and Its Cost:
A. Introduction	201
B. Mutual fund growth and sales of fund shares	202
C. Mutual fund sales loads	204
1. The basic load	204
2. Quantity discounts	205
3. Allocation of sales loads	207
4. Competitive pressures on sales loads and dealer concessions	208
D. Comparison of mutual fund sales loads with costs of other securities transactions	209
1. Comparison with exchange commission rates	209
2. Comparison with costs of over-the-counter transactions	211
3. Comparison with underwriters' spreads	212
4. Conclusion	214
E. Sales loads on investments of dividend distributions	215
F. The adequacy of existing statutory controls	217
1. Disclosure	217
2. Approval of unaffiliated directors	217
3. Statutory limitations on sales loads	217
4. Retail price maintenance	218
(a) Background of section 22(d)	218
(b) The uniqueness of section 22(d)	219
5. Conclusions and recommendations	221
G. Contractual plans	223
1. Introduction	223
2. Profile of the contractual plan	226
(a) Structure	226
(b) Distribution	227
(e) Operation or mechanics of the contractual plan	227
(i) Goal and schedule	227
(ii) Reminder notices	228
(iii) Investment of dividends and reinvestment of capital gains	228
(iv) Completion insurance	229
(v) Withdrawal and reinvestment	229

Chapter V. Distribution and Its Cost—Continued
G. Contractual plans—Continued	Page
3. Front-end loading arrangements-----	229
4. Voluntary plans-----	231
5. The contractual plan purchaser-----	232
(a) General characteristics-----	232
(b) Use and understanding of the prospectus-----	232
(c) Redemptions by contractual planholders-----	233
6. The sales environment-----	233
7. The impact of the front-end load on investors--	235
(a) All contractual planholders-----	235
(b) Noncompleting planholders-----	237
(i) The Special Study statistics-----	238
(ii) The AMFPS statistics-----	238
8. The industry's justifications for the front-end load--	240
(a) The front-end load as a stimulus to systematic investing-----	241
(b) Disclosures applicable to sales of contractual plans-----	242
(c) The profitability of contractual plan investments-----	243
(d) The front-end load as a necessary incentive for salesmen-----	244
9. The Commission's conclusions and recommendations respecting contractual plans-----	246
10. The front-end load on face-amount certificates-----	247
(a) Introduction-----	247
(b) Investor payment experience-----	248
(c) Conclusions and recommendation-----	250
Chapter VI. Mutual Fund Size and Investment Performance:
A. Introduction-----	251
B. Management problems of small funds-----	252
1. Management organizations-----	252
2. Costs of operation-----	252
C. Management problems of large funds-----	255
D. Investment performance-----	257
1. Introduction-----	257
2. The smallest funds (under $1 million at beginning of period)-----	258
3. The small funds ($1 million to under $5 million at beginning of period)-----	259
4. The large funds ($300 million and over at end of period)-----	260
5. The largest funds ($1 billion and over at end of period)-----	261
E. Conclusions-----	262
Supplemental tables-----	264
Chapter VII. Investment Company Growth and Market Impact:
A. Introduction-----	275
B. The growing importance of institutional investors-----	276
1. The size of institutional stockholdings-----	276
2. The volume of institutional trading-----	278
(a) The New York Stock Exchange-----	279
(b) The regional exchanges-----	279
(c) The third market-----	280
(d) Secondary distributions-----	282
(e) Transactions in over-the-counter corporate securities-----	283
3. Mutual funds as institutional investors-----	283
C. Mutual fund impact on stock market movements-----	286
1. Introduction-----	286
2. Mutual funds in rising markets-----	287
3. Mutual funds in declining markets-----	288
4. Mutual fund impact on markets for particular securities--	290
(a) Price impact-----	290
(b) Concentration of investment company portfolios--	291
(c) Investment company holdings in particular industries-----	293
5. Importance of individual funds and fund complexes-----	294
(a) Mutual fund growth and sizable holdings-----	294
(b) The IDS complex-----	296
(c) Insurance Securities Trust Fund-----	298
(d) Other funds and fund complexes-----	298

TABLE OF CONTENTS

XVII

	Page
Chapter VII. Investment Company Growth and Market Impact—Con.	299
D. Regulatory implications of institutional investor growth.....	299
1. Impact on the market generally.....	299
2. Emergency powers.....	300
3. Impact on the market for individual issues.....	300
4. Conclusions.....	302
E. Mutual funds and speculative activity.....	303
1. Speculative activity by mutual funds.....	303
2. Speculative activity by mutual fund investors—With- drawal privileges.....	304
Chapter VIII. Investment Company Relationships With Portfolio Com- panies:
A. Relationships with portfolio companies other than investment companies.....	307
1. The question raised.....	307
2. Mutual fund participation in portfolio company affairs.....	308
3. Conclusions.....	310
B. Mutual fund holding companies.....	311
1. Introduction.....	311
2. Control of portfolio companies.....	314
3. Layering of costs to investors.....	318
(a) Advisory fees.....	318
(b) Two layers of administrative expenses.....	319
(c) A sales load on a sales load.....	319
4. The utility of the fund holding company as an investment vehicle.....	320
(a) Diversification of investment.....	320
(b) An informed choice.....	321
(c) Avoidance of restrictive investment policies.....	322
5. Conclusions and recommendations.....	322
Chapter IX. The Administration and Enforcement of the Investment Company Act:
A. Introduction.....	325
B. Coverage.....	326
1. Statutory scheme.....	326
2. Determination of status.....	327
(a) Requirement of good faith (sec. 3(b)(2)).....	327
(b) Section 3(c) exclusions.....	328
(i) Factoring, discounting, and real estate businesses (sec. 3(c)(6)).....	328
(ii) Companies holding oil, gas, or mineral royalties or leases (sec. 3(c)(11)).....	329
(iii) Companies with 90 percent of their in- vestment securities in certain enumer- ated issuers (sec. 3(c)(8)).....	329
(iv) Companies registered under the Public Utility Holding Company Act (sec. 3(c)(10)).....	330
(c) Series companies.....	330
(i) Definition.....	330
(ii) Charge of sales load in exchange of series shares (sec. 11(b)(2)).....	331
C. Management-shareholder relationships.....	332
1. Definition of investment adviser (sec. 2(a)(19)).....	332
2. Strengthening the independent checks on managements of investment companies (secs. 10, 15, and 32(a)).....	332
3. Attendance at directors' meetings (secs. 15 and 32).....	334
4. Assignment of advisory and underwriting contracts (sec. 15).....	335
5. Section 17(f).....	335
6. Section 25(c).....	336
7. Substitution of underlying investment (sec. 26(a)(4)).....	337
8. Shareholder derivative suits (sec. 33).....	338
D. Administrative and other proceedings.....	338
1. Section 9.....	338
2. Section 36.....	340

Chapter IX. The Administration and Enforcement of the Act—Continued	Page
E. Formal	341
1. Section 2(a)(5)	341
2. Section 3(e)	341
3. Section 3(e)(13)	342
4. Section 10(c)	342
5. Section 15(d)	342
6. Section 22(d)	342
7. Section 24(d)	342
8. Section 38(a)	343
9. Section 43(a) and section 44	343
F. Investment Advisers Act	343
1. Direct disciplinary power over individuals (sec. 203)	343
2. Amendment of definition of investment adviser (secs. 203(b)(2), 203(b)(3), and 205)	344
3. Administrative exemptions from the provisions of the Investment Advisers Act	345
4. Jurisdictional requirement	346

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.
II-	1. The 10 largest diversified closed-end investment companies on June 30, 1966	44
II-	2. The 10 largest diversified open-end investment companies on June 30, 1966	45
11-	3. The 10 largest fund complexes as of June 30, 1966	48
111-	1. Personnel employed by the investment advisory organizations of the 10 largest investment company complexes as of December 31, 1965	88
111-	2. Nonadvisory expenses covered by the advisory fees of 100 mutual funds	91
111-	3. Advisory fee rates and expense ratios of externally managed mutual funds with June 30, 1965, net assets of $100 million and over for their fiscal years ended July 1, 1965-June 30, 1966	98
111-	4. Comparison of 1960 and 1965 advisory fee rate schedules of the 20 largest externally managed funds as applied to June 30, 1965, net assets	101
111-	5. Estimated management cost and expense ratios of internally managed diversified investment Companies with December 31, 1965, net assets of $100 million and over for their fiscal years ended July 1, 1965-June 30, 1966	103
111-	6. Advisory fee rates and expense ratios for fiscal years ended 1953 and 1962 of the largest externally managed funds as of June 30, 1965	112
111-	7. Annual advisory fees chargeable to a $100 million portfolio under bank fee schedules for pension and profit-sharing plans	115
111-	8. Income, expenses, and profits before Federal income taxes of 14 mutual fund advisory organizations for their fiscal years ended 1965	122
111-	9. Average annual income, pre-tax profits and profit margins of investment advisers for their mutual fund advisory and distribution operations for fiscal years ended 1961-65	124
111-	10. The effect of advisory fee reductions on advisory profit margins	125
111-	11. Summary of shareholder fee litigation	154
IV-	1. Allocation of brokerage commissions for sales and other services by 20 of the largest mutual funds for their fiscal years ended July 1, 1965-June 30, 1966	166
V-	1. Relationship of mutual fund assets, new shares issued, and shares redeemed 1955-65	203
V-	2. Basic sales loads and dealer concessions of 30 mutual funds, 1950 versus 1966	208
V-	3. Comparison of sales charges for acquiring and disposing of stocks traded at $40 per share on the New York Stock Exchange with sales charges for an equal amount invested in mutual fund shares	210

TABLE OF CONTENTS

XIX

Table No.		Page
V- 4.	Comparison of year-end values of voluntary and contractual plans in a balanced fund.....	237
V- 5.	Status of 4 AMFPS members' contractual plan accounts 10 or 12 years after being opened.....	239
V- 6.	Payments experience as of the end of 1961 for 2,000 Investors Syndicate of America face-amount certificates sold during July 1941 and January 1945.....	249
VI- 1.	Mutual fund portfolio turnover rates by size group for funds with fiscal years ended December 31, 1964–October 31, 1965.....	254
VI- 2.	Performance of the smallest mutual funds for the 5- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 1965.....	258
VI- 3.	Performance of small mutual funds for the 5- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 1965.....	260
VI- 4.	Performance of large mutual funds for the 5- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 1965.....	261
VI- 5.	Performance of the smallest mutual funds by size and investment objective for the 5- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 1965.....	264
VI- 6.	Performance of small mutual funds by size and investment objective for the 5- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 1965.....	264
VI- 7.	Performance of large mutual funds by size and investment objective for the 5- and 10-year periods ended December 31, 1965.....	265
VI- 8.	Performance of growth funds, by size, for the 5-year period.....	266
VI- 9.	performance of growth-income funds, by size, for the 5-year period 1961–65.....	267
VI-10.	Performance of balanced funds, by size, for the 5-year period 1961–65.....	268
VI-11.	Performance of income funds, by size, for the 5-year period 1961–65.....	269
VI-12.	Performance of growth funds, by size, for the 10-year period 1956–65.....	270
VI-13.	Performance of growth-income funds, by size, for the 10-year period 1956–65.....	271
VI-14.	Performance of balanced funds, by size, for the 10-year period 1956–65.....	272
VI-15.	Performance of income funds, by size, for the 10-year period 1956–65.....	273
VII- 1.	Total assets and stockholdings of selected financial institutions and others, year ends 1940–65.....	276
VII- 2.	Purchases and sales of common stock by selected financial institutions, 1953–65.....	278
VII- 3.	Market value of stock sales effected on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, and the major regional stock exchanges, 1950–65.....	279
VII- 4.	Volume on New York Stock Exchange, regional stock exchanges, and the third market for 50 selected New York Stock Exchange listed stocks, for the 6 months ended June 30, 1965.....	281
VII- 5.	Annual turnover rates of common stockholdings by selected financial institutions and on the New York Stock Exchange, 1960–65.....	285
VII- 6.	Net acquisitions of preferred and common stock issues by selected financial institutions and others, 1955–65.....	288
VII- 7.	The 30 largest common stock holdings of 425 investment companies as of December 31, 1964.....	292
VII- 8.	Holdings of 78 investment companies in 21 selected aerospace and airline issues as of Dec. 31, 1965.....	293
VII- 9.	Net capital inflow and common stock issues held in 1958 and 1964 by 10 large mutual funds.....	295
VIII- 1.	Investment company holdings of the Fund of Funds, Ltd., as of June 30, 1966.....	313
VIII- 2.	Mutual fund management company holdings of the Fund of Funds, Ltd., as of June 30, 1966.....	314

LIST OF CHARTS

Chart No.		Page
V-1.	Average percentage of payments at work for mutual fund investors, voluntary plan versus contractual plan, 10-year plan.....	236
VI-1.	Mean annual operating expense ratios of mutual funds as percent of net assets for 5-year period 1961-65.....	253
VII-1.	Sales and redemptions of mutual fund shares.....	284