

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

Washington, D. C. 20549

(202) 272-2650

For Release: AM's Thursday, July 30

81-35

BEVIS LONGSTRETH BECOMES 60TH SEC COMMISSIONER

Bevis Longstreth was scheduled to be sworn in as a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission in ceremonies on Wednesday, July 29, at the Commission's headquarters. He was to be given the oath of office by Chairman John S.R. Shad. The 60th person appointed to the Commission, he will complete the term left vacant by former Chairman Harold M. Williams, which expires June 5, 1982.

Mr. Longstreth, a native of New York City, had been associated with the New York law firm of Debevoise, Plimpton, Lyons & Gates since 1962. He was admitted to partnership in that firm in 1970. He has specialized in corporate, securities and real estate finance law, bankruptcy business work-outs and not-for-profit law.

Since 1975, Mr. Longstreth has been a Lecturer at Columbia Law School, teaching a seminar on the corporation in modern society. He has lectured on various securities and corporate law topics at the Practising Law Institute and other seminars. He has written numerous articles on business-related subjects. Mr. Longstreth has served on the boards of a number of charitable and educational organizations active in the New York area.

Mr. Longstreth received his undergraduate degree from Princeton University in 1956 (B.S.E.) and graduated from Harvard Law School in 1969 (LL.B.). Mr. Longstreth served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1956 to 1958.