SEC CHAIRMAN SHAD TO SPEAK
AT SECURITIES REGULATION INSTITUTE IN SAN DIEGO

SEC Chairman John S.R. Shad will be the luncheon speaker at the Ninth Annual Securities Regulation Institute in San Diego next Thursday.

The Securities Regulation Institute, sponsored by The University of California, will be held at the Hotel del Coronado in San Diego from January 20 - 22, 1982. Mr. Shad will speak at a luncheon scheduled from 2:15 to 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 21, on current regulatory reform initiatives.

Before he became Chairman of the SEC in May 1981, Mr. Shad was Vice Chairman of the Board of the E.F. Hutton Group. In 1963 he initiated Hutton's investment banking activities, which grew rapidly under his direction to a multi-billion dollar annual volume of corporate financings and mergers. He has also served on the boards of 17 publicly owned corporations.

In order to facilitate capital formation and maintain the integrity of the securities markets, at the Commission Mr. Shad has stressed deregulation; effective antifraud enforcement and market surveillance; and simplified, balanced corporate disclosures.
