SEC AND SWISS OFFICIALS SCHEDULE PRESS CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS OUTCOME OF CONSULTATIONS ON INSIDER TRADING

Senior U.S. and Swiss government officials will participate in a press conference in Washington Tuesday afternoon to discuss the outcome of consultations concerning problems relating to insider trading.

The press conference will begin at 5 p.m. EDT in the Conference Room of the Swiss Embassy, 2900 Cathedral Avenue N.W. Reporters planning to attend should notify the SEC Office of Public Affairs at 272-2650.

With a view toward finding a mutually satisfactory solution of the existing problems relating to insider trading, consultations between representatives of the two countries took place in Bern in March 1982. A second round of talks was held in Washington on Monday and Tuesday, August 30 and 31, 1982.

The Swiss participants in the press conference will include:

Minister Pierre Yves Simonin, Charge d'Affaires
Embassy of Switzerland

Minister Jean Zwahlen
Head of the Financial and Economic Section
Department of Foreign Affairs

Dr. Lionel Frei
Chief of the Section of International Assistance and Police Matters
Department of Justice

Dr. Lutz Krauskopf, Deputy Chief
Department of Justice

Dr. Henrich Gattiker, Deputy Chief
Section of International Law
Department of Foreign Affairs

Peter Klauser, Director of Swiss National Bank

Daniel Zuberbuhler, Legal Advisor,
Swiss Banking Commission

The U.S. participants in the press conference will include:

Faith Ryan Whittlesey
U.S. Ambassador to Switzerland

John S.R. Shad, Chairman
Securities and Exchange Commission

John M. Fedders, Director
SEC Division of Enforcement

Edward F. Greene,
SEC General Counsel

Roger M. Olsen, Deputy Assistant Attorney General
— Criminal Division
