MARY McCUE APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Chairman John S.R. Shad announced today appointment of Mary McCue as Director of the Office of Public Affairs. She succeeds Andrew L. Rothman, who resigned last month to accept a position in the private sector.

Ms. McCue, 36, is currently a public relations executive of a New York City investment banking firm. She will assume her duties at the Commission March 1.

"I'm very pleased that Ms. McCue is willing to leave an excellent private sector position in order to come to the Commission," Chairman Shad said. "Her knowledge of the securities industry and financial press will be particularly helpful in maintaining the effectiveness of the Commission's public affairs program."

Ms. McCue has had 15 years of experience with a variety of organizations and public relations agencies in the New York City area. She received a B.S. in Public Relations from Boston University in 1969.
